Call for Papers

[Extended Deadline, 31 March]

ISHPES Sapporo 2020 is able to organize an online congress. We have created a third deadline at the end of March, only for oral presentations online. Presenters who wish to participate only online will still need to pay a registration fee. We currently have several options to include people in an online congress that will be determined by the number of people planning to come to Sapporo, and the number planning to participate online. After seeing the numbers for each, we will inform everyone on the exact details of the conference. At the moment many sporting events and conferences around the world are being cancelled to mitigate the spread of Covid-19. We are working hard to make sure that we can still host the ISHPES Sapporo 2020 Conference for those who wish to attend both in-person and online.

For the ISHPES Congress Sapporo 2020 scholars are invited to submit proposals for sessions which include three papers and abstracts related to the main topic "Sport History and Interdisciplinary Relations in the Year of the Tokyo Games 2020" or individual abstracts on a subtopic. Each author can only submit one abstract. The oral presentations will each be 20 minutes followed by 10 minutes for discussion.

Subtopics

- The legacy of hosting the Olympic and Paralympic Games
- Mega-events in sports
- Media, journalism and sports
